Olympic Air Joins the Aeroplan Program

MONTREAL, May 15, 2018 /CNW Telbec/ - Is Santorini, Mykonos, Crete or the Delphi Theatre on your list of planned travel destinations? Aeroplan's newest airline partner, Olympic Air, can now make it that much easier for Aeroplan Members to get there.

Starting today, Aeroplan Members can accumulate and redeem Aeroplan Miles for travel with Athens-based Olympic Air which joins Aeroplan's existing airline partners.

"Adding Olympic Air as the latest airline partner to our program enables members to travel to some of Greece's most popular holiday hotspots," said Matt Hall, Vice President, Key Account Management, Aeroplan. "This addition will give our members more choice and flexibility with flight connections to numerous cities and some of Greece's more remote islands."

Aeroplan Members will be able to use their miles for flights with Olympic Air through Aeroplan's Fixed Mileage Flight Rewards that offer industry-leading value at a fixed mileage level.

Olympic Air, a subsidiary of Aegean Airlines, is a regional airline in Greece. With primary base in Athens International Airport "Eleftherios Venizelos" and secondary hubs at "Diagoras" Airport in Rhodes and Macedonia Airport in Thessaloniki, Olympic Air performs approximately 168 flights per day, travelling to a total of 31 Greek destinations including some of the most remote ones.
